Bangalore,

6th November, 1919.

Dear Mr. Rajagopalachari,

I am desired to acknowledge your demi-official letter No.528 dated the 4th November forwarding six copies of Memos. issued in connection with the motor arrangements during the forth-coming Viceregal Visit. I am to state that the Dewan has arranged to take his own motor car to the Kheddas for use there.

As you state that the Wolsley is wanted at Bangalore on the 26th, and the Hotchkiss for being sent to Shimoga on the 27th instant, I should like to know whether they cannot be delivered over here to any one on your behalf. If you desire that they should be sent to Mysore, kindly let me know definitely as to when you want them there.

Yours sincerely,

S.P.Rajagopalachari, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.
